

KETSARIN KHUNRAM (JOY)

Computer Engineering

Hi, I'm ketsarin khunram. I'm 25 years old.

Now I'm interested in the position of front-end development, back-end development, full-stack development and I'm looking for new opportunities to prove myself and always looking for knowledge from social media such as YouTube, Udemy, Google and so much more

I assure you that I will give my best to expand your online reach and help you cater for a better online presence across different media channels.
